1. BACKGROUND AND PURPOSE

The Company has been established to help support Australian-owned businesses. The Company owns the Certification Trade Mark, known as the “AO Logo” (The AO Logo). The AO Logo is set out in Schedule A.

The AO Logo has been created as a measure for consumers and business owners to rely on a brand in certifying which companies are genuinely Australian-owned companies. This is achieved through a strict verification process, which guarantees that ownership is traced directly to the roots of the company.

The AO Logo is simple and iconic. It provides Australian consumers with confidence that goods or services displaying the AO Logo meet the particular requirements of the Rules. The green and gold AO Logo immediately builds public trust and recognition, allowing Australians to trust the goods or services displaying it. The AO Logo is simple and iconic to add value to goods or services.

The Company has filed a copy of the Rules with the Australian Trade Marks Office in accordance with s.173 of The Australian Trade Marks Act 1995 (Cth) (The Act).

2. DEFINITIONS

In the Rules the following definitions apply:

AO Logo	The Certification Trade Mark, representations of which are set out in Schedule A .

- iii) where a word has been defined, other parts of speech and grammatical forms of that word or phrase have corresponding definitions;

- iv) a reference to using the AO Logo on a Product or for a Service is deemed a reference to displaying the AO Logo on the Product itself, or on any packaging use for its delivery, or on any collateral associated with the advertising of the Product or Service;
- v) any word not defined in the Rules will have its ordinary meaning;
- vi) a reference to a rule is a reference to a rule of the Rules; and
- vii) a reference to a schedule is a reference to a schedule of the Rules.

4. AO CERTIFICATION

4.1 An Applicant must meet the following eligibility criteria to qualify for certification:

- i) be at least 80% Australian owned;
- ii) pay tax in Australia; and
- iii) retain profits in Australia.

4.2 Subject to Rule 4.1, where an Applicant demonstrates that they are:

- i) at least 80% Australian owned and that at least 80% of products sold are Australian manufactured or produced, a Three Star Rating may be granted;
- ii) at least 80% Australian owned and that at least 50% of products sold are Australian manufactured or produced, a Two Star Rating may be granted;
- or
- iv) at least 80% Australian owned, a One Star Rating may be granted.

4.3 Subject to Rule 4.1, where an Applicant cannot demonstrate the eligibility criteria to qualify for a Star Rating under Rule 4.2, the Applicant may qualify for a Three Star Rating under Rule 4.2 i) if they can demonstrate that, if a product is imported, their business:

- i) value adds to the product, the cost of which is at least 51% of the final product cost, including raw goods, manufacturing, labour and any Australian tax payments, but excluding any packaging, assembly and/or added water; or
- ii) provides a further substantial service, the cost of which is at least 51% of the final service cost, including any Australian tax payments,

- xi) what percentage of the business is owned by Australian citizens;
- xii) how the Applicant heard about Australian Owned; and
- xiii) the industry the business belongs to.

The Company will maintain a register of the details above for each Applicant and subsequent Licensee.

4.8 In response to receipt of an application, the Company will give Notice to the Applicant requesting evidence to support the application. The evidence may take the form of:

- i) ownership records;
- ii) accounts showing local products and services;
- iii) a statement provided by a Certified Witness, in the form of an executed Statutory Declaration from their respective State or Territory, stating that the Applicant complies with one or more of Rules 4.1 – 4.5; and/or
- iv) any other documentation demonstrating that the Applicant meets the eligibility criteria.

Where an Applicant does not provide a Statutory Declaration executed by a Certified Witness, the Company may act as the Certifier. An example of a Statutory Declaration applicable in the State of Queensland is set out in Schedule C.

4.9 Where the Applicant has an annual turnover of less than $2 million, a statement provided in accordance with Rule 4.8 iii) may be in the form of a Declaration stating that the Applicant complies with one or more of Rules 4.1 – 4.5, executed by the Applicant’s managing director. An example of a Declaration is set out in Schedule D.

4.10 Applications are subject to the approval of the Company. The Company will assess the application, including evidence provided under Rule 4.8 and/or Rule 4.9, against the eligibility criteria set out in Rules 4.1 – 4.5.

- i) Where an Applicant does meet the eligibility criteria to qualify for certification, in accordance with Rules 4.1 – 4.5, the application will be accepted and the Applicant will be granted an Australian Owned ID by the Company.
- ii) Where an Applicant does not meet the eligibility criteria to qualify for certification, in accordance with Rules 4.1 - 4.5, the application will be rejected.

4.11 In instances where an application is rejected, an Applicant may request a review of the Decision in accordance with Rule 7.

5 BECOMING A LICENSEE AND OBLIGATIONS

5.1 An Applicant must meet the minimum criteria under Rules 4.1 – 4.4. Where they have demonstrated they meet the criteria under Rules 4.1 – 4.4 they may be granted a Licence, in accordance with Rule 4.10 i). An Applicant accepts and agrees to the terms of the License by signing a License Agreement ('Licensee').

5.2 A Licensee of the AO Logo must:

- i) comply with the Rules;
- ii) not make alterations to the graphic proportions or individual elements of the AO Logo, however, the AO Logo can be sized to meet the Licensee's requirements;
- iii) only use the AO Logo in one of the approved forms as set out in Schedule A and as provided by the Company;
- iv) only use the AO Logo in association with goods or for services that are offered by the Licensee;
- v) only display the AO Logo on products that have been approved in accordance with Rule 5.3;
- vi) only display the AO Logo on services that have been approved in accordance with Rule 5.4; and
- vii) maintain all standards of the Rules throughout the life of their Licence.

A Licensee is responsible for their use of the AO Logo and their own compliance with the Rules.

5.3 The AO Logo must only be used on products that have been issued a sublicense by the Company. The eligibility criteria for sublicense application is available on request by the Company. Evidence that the product complies with this Rule may be requested by the Company.

5.4 The AO Logo must only be used on services that meet the eligibility criteria in accordance with Rules 4.2 – 4.5 and have been approved by the Company in accordance with Rule 4.10. Evidence that the service complies with this Rule may be requested by the Company.

5.5 A Licensee will receive an Australian Owned ID. The Australian Owned ID will be searchable on the Australian Owned database. Licensee information will be displayed on the database.

5.6 A Licensee will have access to the Australian Owned Network.

5.7A Licensee must inform the Company of any changes to their business or organisation, including contact details and ownership details.

5.8The AO Logo is the absolute property of the Company and may not be used by any person who is not eligible and has not been approved according to the Rules.

5.9The Licensee does not have permission to grant a License, including a sublicense, to third parties. Only the Company has the authority to grant a License. The Company may delegate from time to time the authority to grant a License.

6 AMENDMENT AND REVIEW

6.1 The Company may vary the Rules from time to time by applying to the Registrar of Trade Marks, pursuant to s.178 of The Act.

6.2 Where the Company varies the Rules, the Company will inform a Licensee, setting out the variation in the form of a Notice.

7 REQUEST TO REVIEW A DECISION NOT TO GRANT A LICENCE

7.1 In instances where an application is rejected, an Applicant may request a review of the Decision. A Request must:

- i) be in writing to the Company;
- ii) be received by the Company within 21 days of receipt of the Decision by the Applicant;
and
- iii) include all grounds and associated evidence on which the review is sought.

7.2 Within 30 days of receipt of a Request, the Company must:

- i) consider the Request;
- ii) make a Determination as to whether the Decision should be maintained, or be changed pursuant to the Request; and
- iii) report the Determination and the reason for the Determination to the Applicant in writing.

7.3 The Company may appoint another person to assist in reviewing the Decision and making a Determination, in accordance with Rule 7.2.

7.4 Where a Determination made in accordance with Rule 7.2 or 7.3 reverses a Decision of the Company, an Applicant may be granted a Licence.

7.5 Where a Determination made in accordance with Rule 7.2 or 7.3 maintains a Decision of the Company, an Applicant may apply for Mediation within 14 days of receipt of the Determination by the Applicant. Where an Applicant applies for Mediation, the Applicant must advise the Company in the form of a Notice. A resolution reached by Mediation will be final. The Applicant will bear the cost of any Mediation.

8 COMPLAINTS AND DISPUTE RESOLUTION

8.1 Where the Company receives a complaint about the use of the AO Logo by a Licensee, the Company will:

- i) write to the complainant, in the form of a Notice, to acknowledge receipt of the complaint;
- ii) advise the Licensee, in the form of a Notice, that a complaint has been received and include details of the complaint; and
- iii) initiate a compliance investigation, in accordance with Rule 8.2, within 14 days of receipt of the complaint by the Company.

8.2 Subject to Rule 8.1, where a compliance investigation is initiated:

- i) the Licensee has 14 days to respond to the Notice and provide evidence of:
 - a) current details of their business or organisation;
 - b) the particular AO Logo being used;
 - c) the products or services the AO Logo is being used for;
 - d) the employee or agent using the AO Logo; and
 - e) any other information demonstrating the Licensee's use of the AO Logo.
- ii) the Company will review the evidence and determine whether the complaint is valid; and

- iii) the Licensee may be required to undergo an independent compliance audit, conducted according to the Rules, at the discretion of the Company.

8.3 Where the compliance investigation, carried out in accordance with Rule 8.2, determines that the complaint is:

- i) invalid, there will be no further action; or
- ii) valid and the Licensee is in breach of the Rules, the Company may take further action in accordance with Rule 8.6.

8.4 The Company will inform the Licensee of the outcome of the compliance investigation, under Rule 8.3, in the form of a Notice setting out:

- i) whether the Company is satisfied that the Licensee has complied with the Rules;
- ii) any actions that are to be taken by the Licensee in light of the compliance investigation; and
- iii) whether the Company intends to take any further action, within 14 days of completing the compliance investigation.

8.5 Where a Licensee receives a complaint directly about its use of the AO Logo, the Licensee must advise the Company of the complaint, including the details, in the form of a Notice. The Company will manage the complaint in accordance with Rules 8.1 - 8.4.

8.6 Where a Licensee has breached the Rules, the Company may:

- i) suspend the Licence for a specified period; or
- ii) terminate the Licence in accordance with Rule 10.1.

Where a Licence is suspended under Rule 8.6 i), the Licensee has an opportunity to rectify the breach. In the instance where the breach cannot be rectified or cannot be rectified within the specified period, the Company may terminate the Licence under Rule 8.6 ii).

8.7 Where the Company receives a complaint about the use of the AO Logo by a non-Licensee, the Company can:

- i) write to the complainant, in the form of a Notice, to acknowledge receipt of the complaint;

- ii) write to the non-Licensee, in the form of a Notice, setting out:
 - a) the complaint, including details of the complaint;
 - b) the Rules in accordance with which the AO Logo may legally be used;
 - c) a request for the non-Licensee to discontinue use of the AO Logo, including destroying any products, packaging used for its delivery, or any collateral associated with the advertising of the Product or Service that bear the AO Logo, within 14 days of receipt of the Notice by the non-Licensee; and
 - d) a request that legal costs, an account of profits and/or damages be paid, within 14 days of receipt of the complaint by the Company.

8.8 In addition to Rule 8.7, where the conduct of the non-Licensee has caused damage, the Company can commence legal action, or any other action, against the non-Licensee at any stage.

8.9 Subject to Rule 8.7, where the non-Licensee fails to rectify the complaint set out in a Notice received in accordance with Rule 8.7 ii), the Company will have recourse to take other action, including legal action.

8.10 Within 30 days of completing a compliance investigation in response to a complaint received in accordance with Rule 8.1 or Rule 8.5, the Company will inform the complainant of the outcomes of the compliance investigation, in the form of a Notice, setting out:

- i) whether the Company is satisfied that the Licensee is complying with the Rules;
- ii) any actions that are to be taken by the Licensee in light of the compliance investigation;
and
- iii) whether the Company intends to take any further action.

8.11 In response to a complaint received in accordance with Rule 8.7, the Company will inform the complainant, in the form of a Notice, that:

- i) the complaint against the non-Licensee has been resolved; or
- ii) that the Company is taking further action.

9 LICENSEE FEES AND ANNUAL RENEWAL

9.1 The Licensee may be required to pay an annual licence fee. Details of the annual licence fee are set out on the Website.

9.2 The Company reserves the right to prescribe other fees or an amendment to the fees stipulated in Rule 9.1 from time to time.

9.3 Where the Licensee does not agree to any amendments to the licence fees, subject to Rule 9.2, the Licensee will have the opportunity to deregister from the Australia Owned Network and terminate their Licence, in accordance with Rule 10.4, without incurring additional fees.

9.4 Upon renewal of a Licence, and payment of the annual license fee, a Licensee must provide the following to the Company:

- i) where there have been changes to their business or organisation, evidence in accordance with Rule 4.8 iii); or
- ii) where there have been no changes to their business or organisation, a Declaration executed by the Licensee stating that there have been no changes to the business or organisation.

Where a Licensee provides a Declaration under Rule 9.4 ii), the Company may request that the Licensee provides evidence in accordance with Rule 4.8 iii). An example of a Declaration is set out in Schedule E.

10 TERMINATION OF LICENSE

10.1 The Company may terminate a Licence, in accordance with Rule 10.2.

10.2 Where the Company terminates a Licence, the Company will inform a Licensee of the intention to terminate their Licence, in the form of a Notice, setting out:

- i) the reason for termination;
- ii) a demand for the Licensee to discontinue all use of the AO Logo on all products, marketing material, packaging and other matter that bears the AO Logo or any reference to it; and
- iii) the specified time frame within which the Licensee must discontinue all use of the AO Logo.

Any products bearing the AO Logo, or any reference to it, not disposed of by the Licensee within the specified time frame must be dealt with at the Licensee's cost to erase the AO Logo, or any reference to it.

10.3 Where the Company terminates a Licence in accordance with Rule 10.1, the specified time frame under Rule 10.2 iii) is between 14 days and 4 months, depending on the severity of the breach and at the Company's discretion.

10.4 A Licensee may terminate their Licence by giving Notice to the Company at any point after being granted a Licence.

10.5 Where a Licensee terminates their Licence in accordance with Rule 10.4, the Licensee must discontinue all use of the AO Logo on all products, marketing material, packaging and other matter that bears the AO Logo or any reference to it within the specified time frame. Any products bearing the AO Logo, or any reference to it, not disposed of within the specified time frame must be dealt with at the Licensee's cost to erase the AO Logo, or any reference to it.

10.6 Where a Licensee terminates their Licence in accordance with Rule 10.4, the specified time frame under Rule 10.5 is:

- i) 1 month or the end of the Licence Period, whichever is first; or
- ii) up to 4 months,

and is at the Company's discretion.

10.7 Where a Licensee fails to comply with:

- i) a Notice given by the Company in accordance with Rule 10.2; or
- ii) Rule 10.5,

the Company will have recourse to take other action in order to have the Licensee removed from the Directory online. The Company may reserve its right to commence legal action to recover any associated costs in the exercise of deregistration or damages associated with any economic loss experienced by the Company through the behaviour of the Licensee.
